VIRGINIA JENKINSON

Is anyone in Sierra Madre expecting a piano from Hamburg, Germany? The NEWS is in receipt of an arrival notice and freight bill from the East Asiatic Co., Ltd., which says that such an item will arrive on the "Manchuria" due to dock June 23rd. The freight bill was sent to us by the postoffice in the hope that we might find the correct owner. The shipper was the Atlas Transportgesellschaft, Fur Land-U. Seeverkohr HBH, and in simple language the tab is $36.07. Call at our office if interested, please.

Whatever project dynamic Virginia Sayles undertakes has the stamp of success on it before it starts. This energetic woman is being credited with the record turnout present at the Chamber of Commerce dinner held last Wednesday night. With her usual gusto, she made personal visits to many of the merchants who might have forgotten the date or otherwise have overlooked the event under the pressure of work.

Ninety-eight persons were there to hear Lorne Pratt give "The Lament of the Small Business man" and to learn the rules of the Courtesy Contest in which "The Clerk of the Month" will be selected. Jim Wolfe, chairman of the Courtesy Contest, gave a vitamin-packed explanation of the contest to the nearly 100 members and wives of the Chamber present.

High praise for Don Jackson's guidance of the Chamber during its initial months of reactivation were heard on all sides. The only disappointment of the evening was the non-appearance of Anthony Cavalli, secretary-manager of the group, who was unable to be there because of illness. Better luck next time, Tony.

PUBLIC SHOWING OF H-BOMB FILM HERE TOMORROW

"Operation Ivy," the complete and official film record of the initial H-bomb tests in the Pacific, will have a free, public showing at 8 p.m. tomorrow in the City school auditorium. The film is being presented as a non-partisan community service by the Sierra Madre Young Republicans club of which W. M. Hawkins, Jr., is president.

The film was made available by Congressman Edgar W. Hiestand who purchased the print, as a public service, and invites its use by any civic organization or other group requesting it.

The film runs 28 minutes in length.

After viewing the film with the general public, members of the Young Republicans club will gather for an end-of-the-season party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Ames, 305 Ramona.

Operation of Canyon Pool by City OK'd

The City will operate the Canyon swimming pool this summer and hopes to have it in shape for an opening this weekend or no later than Monday, June 21.

Recommendation that it be operated under the salaried management of Audrey B. Smith, lessee last summer, was made to the City Council Tuesday by City Administrator Lawrence Bevington.

He predicted that, with a good, hot summer, the City might hope to break even on the operation as it did in 1952.

Mrs. Smith will be paid at the rate of $1.75 per hour on a schedule similar to last year's. A lifeguard will be paid $1.25 per hour. Reconditioning of the pool will cost approximately $250, Bevington said.

PRATT ON BOARD OF CALIF. CITIES LEAGUE

Mayor Charles E. Louk has appointed Councilman Lorne B. Pratt to serve as Sierra Madre representative on the board of directors of the League of California Cities.

CONSULTANT TELLS PLANS FOR ZONING

Whitnall Speaker at Dinner-Meeting Here

"What IS Sierra Madre?" is the question with which Gordon Whitnall and Associates will approach a land use study of Sierra Madre, Mr. Whitnall told members of the Community Coordinating Council, Kiwanis, Lions and Exchange service clubs and guests at a dinner-meeting June 8 in the Woman's clubhouse.

The occasion was the installation dinner customarily given by the Kiwanis Club in honor of new Coordinating Council officers with the other service clubs cooperating. Mr. Whitnall was the principal speaker. He was accompanied by his associates, Mrs. Whitnall and Kay Kalicka.

Retain Town Character

The City recently entered into a contract with the planning consultant firm which, at the end of a nine-month study will submit a map and new zoning ordinance. This, Mr. Whitnall said, should reflect the wishes of the people of Sierra Madre in retaining the character and personality of the town.

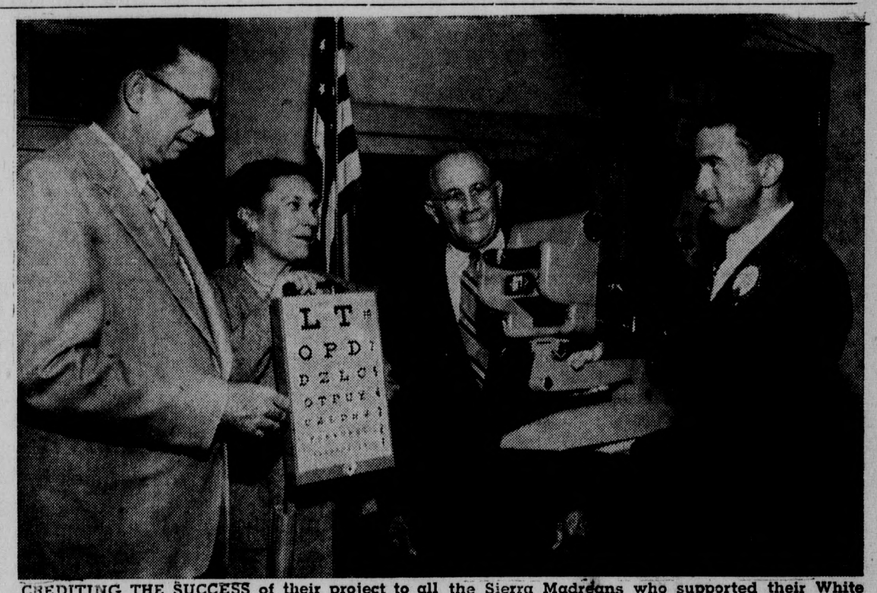

Groups and individuals will be consulted and public meetings held throughout the period of study, he pointed out. In addition, the consultants will serve the Planning Commission and the City Council in an advisory capacity during the life of the contract.

Not a "Cure-All"!

The new zoning ordinance, he emphasized, will not be a cure-all for the City's land-use problems, even though enforced. It will be a major step toward a master plan which, as planners think of it, would also include study and recommendations on streets and highways, parks and recreation, civic center and off-street parking.

However, the forthcoming

Progress Report on Flood Control Set For July Meeting

At the suggestion of C. M. Winbigler, chairman of the North Lima Citizen's Emergency Committee for Flood Control, Councilman Harold F. Roberts will prepare a progress report on flood control measures and set up a meeting for mid-July.

Chairmen and two members of each of the Citizens' committees will be invited to attend, he stated Tuesday night at a council session.

Winbigler pointed out that citizens' interest continues high inasmuch as flood difficulties may be anticipated for another six years or more.

COUNTY MOVES TO ACQUIRE DEBRIS BASIN SITES HERE

The Los Angeles County Flood Control District is negotiating for properties in Auburn and Carter canyons for construction of debris basins in both canyons this summer by the Army Corps of Engineers. At the same time, suit for condemnation of the 7.28 acres needed in Auburn canyon is being prepared by the County counsel.

Negotiations for the two-acre right of way owned by Cornelius G. Willis in Carter canyon were reported near completion by a spokesman for the Flood Control District. The parcel owned by Willis is part of his estate and lies one-quarter of a mile north of Carter Ave. and 300 feet east of the center line of a prolongation of Baldwin.

The basin to be constructed there soon after July 1st will have a 22,000 cubic yard capacity, an embankment 28 feet high and a basin excavation 20 feet deep for debris storage.

List Auburn Parcels

The parcels reportedly required for the Auburn canyon basin of 32,000 cubic yard capacity are as follows: 1.65 acres owned by Edgar U. Drake, 800 N. Auburn; .97 of an acre and 2.8 acres owned by Harold J. and Elizabeth S. Spears, 501 N. Sunnyside; .21 of an acre owned by Ruth K. Passage, 801 N. Auburn; .04 of an acre owned by the City of Sierra Madre; .98 of an acre owned by William H. and Mary O. Coleman, Santa Monica; .63 of an acre owned by Leo H. and Neota S. Meyer, 558 Ramona, and 235 feet of the northerly end of Auburn Ave. owned by the City of Sierra Madre.

The Auburn canyon debris basin will have a 30-foot-deep excavation and an embankment 20 feet high. Col. Arthur H. Frye Jr., L. A. district engineer, Corps of Engineers, has explained that much study and consideration is given long before any construction is done to determine and secure the best sites and to design the basins most economically to fill the requirements.

Although the construction here this summer is the result of a stepped-up portion of the comprehensive flood control plan for Los Angeles county, Col. Frye has also warned that "only when the entire plan is completed and in operation will this area have complete flood protection."

Steps toward acquisition of slightly more than five acres of unimproved property in Bailey canyon for enlargement of the basin there, were taken by the county two weeks ago.

MEET MONDAY ON RAYMOND BASIN WATER ALLOCATION

Councilman Harold F. Roberts, water department chairman, and City Administrator Bevington, will attend a meeting Monday of the Raymond Basin Advisory board.

Discussed at that time, according to Roberts, will be a re-allocation of Raymond Basin water rights preparatory to court adjudication.

Who Is 'Most Courteous Clerk'?

Shoppers Entitled To Vote with Each Purchase to July 10

The Courtesy Contest in which "The Clerk of the Month" will be selected went into high gear this week as official balloting by shoppers was started on Monday, June 14.

Accompanying the opening of the contest was an announcement by the Chamber of Commerce of a wonderful array of prizes to be given by sponsors to reward the clerk receiving the largest number of votes.

The purpose of the contest is to permit and encourage the buying public of the Sierra Madre trading territory to indicate by voting, their choice of the most efficient, courteous and pleasant person now serving shoppers in this area.

Ballot boxes have been placed in the business establishments and offices of all participating sponsors of the contest. You will receive a ballot with each purchase and you may then vote for the person best fulfilling the requirements of efficiency and courtesy.

The Chamber of Commerce pointed out this week that YOU MAY VOTE WITH EACH PURCHASE and that VOTES MAY BE CAST IN ONE PLACE OF BUSINESS FOR A CLERK OR WORKER IN ANOTHER, if you wish.

Prizes ranging in variety from a 53-piece set of dishes to dresses and perfume were announced this week with more to be made public within the next few days. Here's the list up to press time Wednesday:

CONTEST RULES

All persons who are employed in Sierra Madre and whose duties require them to make frequent contact with customers, clients or the general business public of the city are eligible as contestants.

This contest will be in effect from the start of business on Monday, June 14th, until the close of business on Saturday, July 10th.

Official ballots will be supplied free to each customer on the basis of one ballot for each completed purchase or transaction.

To qualify, ballots must be deposited in an official ballot box, one of which will be prominently on display by each participating dealer.

In case of a tie vote, prizes will be equally divided among the winners.

The announcement of the winner and the time and place of the formal presentation of the prizes will be made by the Contest Committee of the Sierra Madre Chamber of Commerce as soon as possible after the close of the contest.

The following persons will serve as judges: ALFRED J. ("AL") DEWEY, REV. ROBERT N. SCHAPER, LEE SHIPPEY, and MRS. FRAZER DOUGHERTY.

The decisions of the judges will be final.

Preliminary School Budget Is Approved

Board Sets Division Line for Two Schools

Superintendent of Schools C. A. Skutt presented to the school board of trustees Tuesday preliminary budget estimates for the year starting July 1 and received board approval.

The trustees also set Mountain Trail, between Orange Grove and Mira Monte as the division line for determining Grove and Mira Monte, as the new Sierra Mesa school and the present City school.

Elementary school children residing on both sides of Mountain Trail and eastward will attend the new school. Others will attend the present school, with the exception of Canyon and Marlborough Terrace youngsters who receive bus transportation. They will be assigned by school officials, according to the board.

Superintendent Skutt has esimated the overall expenses esimated for the new year to be $236,766, slightly under expenses for this year estimated to be $238,517.

The figure is lower, he points out, because of heavy capital expense this year for playground and off-street parking which was approximately $10,000. Extensive capital outlay next year is not contemplated, he said. Only other anticipated increases are in salary raises of about $200 per each certificated person on the teaching staff and employment of a custodian for the new school at Canyon and Highland, according to Skutt.

Confirmation of estimated income for the year will be forthcoming from the State between July 1 and 15.

The budget hearing was set for 7:30 p.m., Aug. 4.

Council Appoints Dr. David S. Wood

Retains Boundaries for Proposed Parking District

Dr. David S. Wood, Caltech professor, was sworn in Tuesday night as a City Council appointee at an adjourned meeting at which the board also decided to proceed, as planned, with a public hearing next Tuesday, June 22, on formation of a parking assessment district here.

Something About New Councilman

Dr. David S. Wood, new City councilman succeeding Paul N. Carter, is assistant professor of mechanical engineering at California Institute of Technology from which institute he received the B.S., M.S. and Ph.D. degrees.

Born in Akron, Ohio, he was reared in Sierra Madre and presently resides at 450 East Highland with his wife and 5-year-old daughter. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Randolph Wood of this city.

He has been a member of the Sierra Madre Planning Commission since 1952. In 1942-43 he was engaged in research and development work at Caltech under contracts with the National Defense Research Council and in 1944-45 he did engineering development work on the atomic bomb at Los Alamos, N.M.

The parking decision was pertinent inasmuch as it has become generally known that one of three parcels designated for off-street parking in the petition filed Jan. 27 has since been leased to a major oil company by the owner, Dr. John L. Woehler.

Other than instituting condemnation suit, the council felt that one course might be the elimination of the parcel in question from the present set-up and revision of the assessment district boundaries.

This was not favored.

A letter from the Chamber of Commerce signed by Donald H. Jackson, president, and a verbal opinion of Albert E. Morgan, chairman of the parking committee appointed by ex-Mayor Kinney, strongly urged the council to proceed with formation of the district as set forth in proposed Ordinance 537, published May 13 and 20.

Morgan stated that in his opinion condemnation proceedings should be instituted, if necessary, to retain the assessment district boundaries and the three "strategically located and vitally needed" parking areas as originally set forth.

Total assessment to be spread over properties within the district would be $50,114.33, inclusive of estimated acquisition costs, $42,860; estimated improvement costs, $3500, and estimated legal fees and incidental expense, $3,754.33.

The three proposed off-street parking areas include that parcel back of the City Hall on the northeast corner of N. Auburn and Montecito Ct., a parcel on the northeast corner of N. Baldwin and Montecito Ave., and the Woehler property on the east side of S. Baldwin above Suffolk Ave.

The city administrator also was authorized to proceed with necessary improvements to two-thirds of the Peters property back of the City Hall to provide temporary off-street parking pending formation of the parking district.

The appointment of Dr. Wood to the council post was moved by Councilman Charles H. James and seconded by Councilman Harold F. Roberts. Councilman Lorne B. Pratt, in turn, nominated Walter H. Goodwin who, he pointed out, received the highest number of votes of the eight defeated candidates in the April election of three councilmen.

Pratt said he felt a responsibility to respond to the wishes of more than 500 persons who voted for Goodwin. Councilman Roberts replied that he knew of no precedent here for choosing councilmanic appointees from defeated candidates.

The vote was three to one for Wood, Pratt's being the dissenting vote.

Citizens Group Submits Water Study Findings

A Citizens Group for Water, headed by A. L. Draeger as temporary chairman, presented to the City Council Tuesday night a 3500-word report and recommendation resulting from a fact-finding study of the local water situation. The study was instituted after defeat of a $110,000 bond issue election in April and a public meeting on water early in May.

It has been the Citizens committee's purpose to find means of financing water system improvements without a bond issue or increase in water rates.

Decision to submit the report was reached at a public meeting of interested citizens at the City Parkhouse last Thursday night.

Al Freeland, water department superintendent, was present to explain the operation of the City's water system and to answer questions. Mr. Freeland also pointed out the increased need for water as various sections of the city are subdivided.

As a matter of public interest and community service, the Sierra Madre NEWS will publish the full text of the recommendations beginning in next week's issue.

STUDY BIDS ON OIL FOR STREET MAINTENANCE

Bids received on 30,000 gallons of penetrating oil for street seal-coating were referred to the City Council committee for study and recommendation next week.

What Are Fathers Made Of?

A father is a thing that growls when it feels good, and laughs loud when scared half to death.

A father never feels worthy of the worship in a child's eyes.

He's never quite the hero his daughter thinks, never quite the man his son believes him to be, and this worries him, sometimes.

So he works too hard to try and smooth the rough places in the road for those of his own who will follow him.

A father is a thing that gets very angry when the first school grades aren't as good as he thinks they should be.

He scolds his son, though he knows it's the teacher's fault.

Fathers are what give daughters away to other men who aren't nearly good enough, so they can have grandchildren who are smarter than anybody's.

Fathers make bets with insurance companies about who'll live the longest.

One day they lose, and the bet's paid off to the part of them they leave behind.

I don't know where father goes when he dies. But I've an idea after a good rest, wherever it is, he won't just sit on a cloud and wait for the girl he's loved and the children she bore. He'll be busy there, too, repairing the stairs, oiling the gate, improving the streets, smoothing the way.—(The Rotarian.)

Lee Shippey asks What Do You Think?

We Sierra Madreans are rather proud of ourselves for getting out more than 50 percent of the vote for the primaries, but really we should be a bit ashamed.

It's an odd thing that millions of Americans, who think they are the most patriotic people on earth, are ready to fight for their country but won't take the trouble to vote for it. The ballot is a privilege we would battle for to the death, yet peoples who haven't one tenth the advantages American citizenship gives us, beat us hollow at voting. Australia, Japan, Canada, England, France, Germany, Italy and other nations would wonder what was the matter if no more than 70 percent of their registred voters went to the polls. In fact, in Australia anyone who doesn't vote is penalized unless he can submit proof that it wasn't his fault. In other countries, which impose no penalties, it is customary for more than 80 percent of the voters to express themselves at the polls.

But we're content to let half the voters select the candidates for all of us.

As soon as the voting is over, though, all of us become expert analysts, deducing just what we wish to deduce from the results. Most of the professional analysts are just like the expert phychiatrists called in a murder trial. The latter always testify just as those who hired them wish them to testify, knowing that if they didn't not only the lawyers but probably the judge would drop dead. Most political analysts, like lawyers, try to convince other people that what they want to happen is what is going to happen, no matter how they may secretly worry about the facts.

Our courtesy contest for sales people is a good idea. We don't need it as much as many other towns do, for courtesy is pretty much a habit in our town. But courtesy is such a fine thing that the more we have the better. If we develop a great surplus of it maybe we can give some to the United States Senate. I can remember when they used to talk about Senatorial courtesy, but I haven't heard it mentioned in the last few years.

LAST WORD: School vacations should make a lot of us realize that many teachers really need a 12-week rest. Just suppose you had to handle 40 assorted kids for nearly 10 months, with no authority to spank any of 'em!

ARTICLE GETS RESPONSE

Sierra Madre NEWS
Dear Editor:

I want to thank you for the effective notice you so kindly placed for me in the Sierra Madre NEWS. You will be interested to know that the response to my appeal for used, worn bed sheets was gratifying and all of these old sheets I now have on hand are due to your article.

As many of the donors who left sheets at my home or at the Bethany church for me are unknown, I wish to take this means of expressing my appreciation.

The sheets are being made into bandages and crib sheets and will be sent to missionary workers in India who minister to a large group of lepers. One missionary writes me that there is a very real need for these items and she is grateful to each of the Sierra Madreans who have helped her meet the need.

I plan to continue this work and will welcome further contributions.

Gratefully,

Your PRE-SCHOOL Child

by
MRS. MARJORIE GREEN
Director of Sierra Madre Community Nursery School

BOOKS FOR PARENTS

A great deal of information on child development has been through scientific research done in the Yale School of Medicine by Dr. Gesell, in the Institute of Child Development at the University of California, the Pre-School Laboratories at the University of Iowa and many other centers of learning. Although the result of this research is written in rather technical form, many books on child guidance are very readable and can be enjoyed by even the "tired housewife."

Among the recent books enjoyed most by mothers at the Nursery school are the following:

Your Child and His Problems by Dr. Joseph D. Teicher.

Dr. Teicher is director of the Child Guidance Clinic of Los Angeles, and a psychiatrist with wide background of experience in treating emotionally disturbed children. His book is a very practical guide. It not only helps parents in understanding why children behave as they do, but gives definite suggestions about things to do and not to do when faced with the every-day problems of living with children. He gives concrete advice in the areas of eating, sleeping, toilet training, speech problems, jealousy and rivalry, fear, sex education, sickness and convalescence,, family tensions, gifted children, sub-normal children, reading disability and many other topics. Any parent will profit by owning this book. It takes the child from infancy to adolescence.

Understanding Your Child by Dr. James L. Hymes, Jr.

Dr. Hymes has held professorships in leading colleges and has several small children of his own. He states a very clear-cut and workable philosophy for family living. He understands and appreciates the child's viewpoint, but is entirely sympathetic with the parents' dilemma. According to Dr. Hymes, being a parent is really a lot of fun, and parents will enjoy their children more if they make friends with them. The book is charmingly illustrated and humorous in many places.

How to Help Your Child in School by Lawrence and Mary Frank.

Dr. Frank is one of our leading psychiatrists and educators and the father of six children. He and his wife, Mary, have collaborated on this excellent book which helps parents understand their relationship to the school, its curriculum and teachers. It tells parents how to help their child in his initial adjustment toward nursery school, kindergarten and primary grades. It tells the parent how to help the child establish a healthy relationship toward his classmates and school, whether or not the school meets with the parents' approval.

And, of course, don't forget the old stand-bys:

Infant and Child in the Culture of Today by Arnold Gesell.

The Common Sense Book of Baby and Child Care by Benjamin Spock.

Referring to good books occasionally should not limit the parents' ability to think for themselves, but rather increase their self-confidence and develop their initiative.

Also, remember there is no substitute for your own common sense!

(Publisher's Note: This week's article on 'The Pre-School Child' is the last in a series of six prepared for the NEWS by Mrs. Green. We know that many of you have found them helpful and we are looking forward to presenting another series in the fall.)

Foothill Men Plan a Kosher B-B-Q Event

An innovation on the social calendar of the Men's club of Foothill Jewish Community Center will be a Kosher "Bar-B-Q" on Sunday, June 20, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Bertram, 1511 S. Santa Anita Dr., Arcadia. The supper party will get underway at 6 p.m. and the chairmen, Dave Codman and Ed Bender, hope for such an outstanding success that it will become an annual event.

Norman Levinson is president of the Men's club.

The menu Sunday will include, per person, a one-pound prime rib steak, charcoal broiled to individual taste, corn on the cob, antipasto salad a la Bender, coffee or tea, Parisian sherbet and all the usual barbecue condiments. The liquid refreshment department will be in charge of Ben Otto and Ralph Alpert.

Professional entertainment and music for dancing will follow. Other activities will include swimming and presentation of prizes, among them a three-day stay at Las Vegas as a gift to a lucky couple from the Men's club.

Those planning to attend are asked to make reservations with Ed Bender, DOuglas 6-2460, or any member of the Men's club.

"New" Piano in City Parkhouse Draws Enthusiastic Response from Clubwomen

At least one local organization has noted, welcomed and expressed appreciation for the new-old upright piano which recently was placed in the City parkhouse.

Philip T. Mitchell, City Recreation director, to whom The Community Friendship club wrote recently to tell of members' pleased surprise, disclaims any credit for the new acquisition.

Lauds Council, Commission

"Not through my efforts," says Phil, "but through the cooperation of the City council and the Recreation commission the reconditioned piano was provided at a cost to the City Park fund of $145. It's a Kurtzmann, long popular in schools and it's in good condition."

Mitchell says he and the Recreation commission long have known the need for a parkhouse piano, one in useable condition, for teenage dances, summer concerts and community singing, folk dancing during the summer recreation program for children and for the many other meetings and gatherings in the park.

Friendship Club Writes

Mildred Webber, Friendship club secretary, expressed her group's reaction as follows:

"Yesterday we had our annual picnic here in the park and after lunch we all gathered for our program in the parkhouse where—could we believe our eyes!—there stood a new piano! We could hardly wait until our very good pianist, Mrs Seager sat down and struck the first chords of America, and, as we lifted our quivering voices in song, I'm sure not one of us was off key. It really sounded swell, and we are so very pleased to know from now no we can have good music at all our gatherings. Mrs. Seager pronounced it a very good instrument and we have great faith in her judgment."

The writer went on to say the club extended thanks to Mitchell and to Don Parker and Mrs. Matilda Smith, the latter being music instructor at City school, and to say they felt sure the piano would bring pleasure, not only to her organization, but many others.

Mr. Parker and Mrs. Smith both had tested and approved the piano before its purchase.

City Studying New Estimates, Plans for Employee Retirement

At least five insurance companies have either submitted or indicated their intention of submitting plans and estimates for a retirement insurance plan for Sierra Madre City employees, according to Lawrence Bevington, city administrator.

On the basis of these, the City council will determine the next step toward providing these benefits for the City employees. A tax rate increase to finance such a plan was approved by the voters in the April municipal election.

DRIVER CITED HERE SENTENCED TO 305 DAYS IN CO. JAIL

Ivan Keith Parish of the Veterans hospital, Los Angeles, who was cited here May 31 by Sgt. Robert Heasley for traffic violations, was sentenced to 305 days in County jail when he appeared Wednesday, June 9, in Municipal Court of Pasadena.

Parish was arrested on a warrant several days after receiving the citation here which concluded a chase through Sierra Madre and Arcadia streets during the Memorial Day weekend. At the time of his arrest on complaint of not having a valid operator's license in his possession, he was reportedly A.W.O.L from the Veterans hospital and Sgt. Heasley located him at another address.

Parish is now serving, concurrently, sentences of six months for driving with a suspended operator's license, 90 days for reckless driving, 25 days for failure to make five boulevard stops and 10 days for speeding.

St. Rita's Parochial School Graduating Class of 23 in Exercises Held June 8

Members of the largest graduating class in the history of St. Rita's parochial school received their diplomas Tuesday night, June 8, from Father Thomas O'Malley in a church ceremony followed by a reception in the school hall.

The 23 eighth graders marched in procession to front pews in the church to hear benediction sung by the seventh grade choir and spoken by Father Isadore of the Passionist Fathers Monastery, a sermon by Father Clark of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary church in Pasadena, and a farewell address by Father O'Malley.

The altar was decorated in royal blue and white. Following the ceremony the graduates, their families and guests, proceeded to the parish hall where seventh graders staged a program, "The Prophecy," in honor of the graduates.

During the evening Duke and Kay Wellington, who have conducted ballroom and square dancing classes at the school during the year, called dances for their young pupils who performed for their admiring families. Refreshments were served at the conclusion of the program.

The graduates had received communion in a body the morning of graduation day and were served breakfast afterwards by a mothers' committee. Later in the week graduates were feted at a beach party and trip to Knott's Berry Farm.

Wearing miniature "caps and gowns," white with royal blue trim for the girls and a reversed color combination for the boys, the following received diplomas in the June 8 exercises: Judith Brennan, Rita Bonney, Donna Broomfield, Edwin Civerolo, William Coleman, Michael Harbushka, Michael Hawkins, Joseph Kelly, Samuel LaSala, Janet Moyer, Mercedes MacGowan, Linda Rhodes, Kathleen Shea, John Sheehy, Susan Sidenfaden, Rosemarie Springate, Martha Sweeney, John Taillac, Ronald Trottier, Mary Linda Woods, Sharon Wright, Patricia Chemotti and Raymond Kruszona.

FIRE FLAMES

By JAMES HEASLEY

I've been thinking that those who read this column might be interested in knowing more about how your Volunteer Fire department operates. It is surprising to this writer how few really know.

In the first place, there are at least 30 very busy men who give their time to the Fire department. These select fellows are locals whose work and interests are centered right here in town. They are required to be employed within the City limits when they apply for membership. And they must have an understanding with their employer that it is permissible for them to leave their work immediately when the fire signal sounds. (To these employers, the populace owes much!)

There is very little delay because most of the volunteers are at work close at hand to the fire station. It is a common sight to see volunteer firemen either hurrying afoot or arriving by car at the station before the signal has stopped sounding. To date, efficiency has been high and in virtually every case arrival at the scene of fire has been prompt enough to avoid a major conflagration.

Then, too, improvements and repairs to the fire trucks are done for the most part by the firemen themselves at no cost to the City. Some repairs, however, requiring greater length of time, can't be accomplished by the men. After all, they are family men and are not expected to neglect their families or their employment. In order that their interest be retained, an effort is made to promote sociability and good fellowship. To keep to this policy, the Fire department membership screens and approves all applications for membership. This has resulted in friendship and lack of discord.

The City provides enough aid, financially, to supply each active member with an insurance policy to help in case of injury or death. Part of this is deducted from the volunteer's monthly check (an active member receiving $2.60, providing he has not misssed a drill or a fire) and the remaining amount is ALL his—until the Chief fines him for something or other.

From the fines fund we are able to provide our occasional parties.

Cong. Church Tells Bible School Plans

Daily Classes Set For June 21-July 2

The Congregational Church will have a Daily Vacation Bible School again this year, after having discontinued the program for several years. The school, open to all children of kindergarten age through sixth grade, will get underway Monday, June 21, and will continue, with weekday sessions from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m., through July 2.

Advance enrollment may be made by phoning Mrs. Velma Embree, CUster 5-6409, who also will provide information about transportation and curriculum. Youngsters also may enroll the opening day.

The Vacation Bible school, featuring the theme, "The Story of Our Church," will provide a study of Christianity back to Biblical times illustrated by craft work and other visual aids. An open house and program, during which children will demonstrate their accomplishments, will mark the last day of the Bible school on July 2nd.

The Rev. Carl Smith will be in charge of the school, heading a staff of about 15 teachers.

News of the Churches

"Father's Fortitude" Rev. Edward Kriz's Sunday Sermon Topic

"Father's Fortitude" will be the subject of the Rev. Edward J. Kriz's sermon message at morning services Sunday in First Baptist church. His sermon at the evening service, scheduled for 7:30, will be entitled, "The High Calling of God." A film, "The Wedding Feast," will follow the evening service.

The Christian Youth Fellowship will meet for Bible study and discussion at 6:15 p.m., Sunday.

Western Parade Saturday to Herald Bethany Bible School

Heralding the opening next week of Bethany's annual Vacation Bible School will be a parade Saturday morning thru several Sierra Madre streets. The parade, headed by an authentic "prairie schooner," will start at 11 a.m. Saturday from Bethany church, proceeding to Sierra Madre Blvd., west on the boulevard to Lima where the paraders will about-face, proceed back along Sierra Madre Blvd., eastward to Mountain Trail, then back along the boulevard to the church.

Following the prairie schooner will be an automobile, 1904 vintage, and a contingent of "cowboys, cowgirls and a few Indians," according to present plans. Dr. Schaper says there will be some free prizes distributed among boys and girls watching the parade Saturday.

"Pioneering with Christ" is the theme chosen this year for the Vacation Bible school which will be in progress from Monday, June 21, through July 1 from 9 to 11:30 a.m. each weekday morning. Mrs. Marie Franzen is superintendent of the school, assisted by Lydia Richter. Departmental superintendents will be Mrs. Jean Bell, Mrs. Cora Schrotzberger, Mrs. Gladys Witt, Mrs. Grace Limbaugh, Mrs. Evelyn Moore and Mrs. Carol Merfitt.

The school is open to all school-age children from kindergarten through junior high. Crafts, games, handbooks, stories and other youth activities will be featured daily along with the Bible lessons. All of the curriculum and project materials will be centered around a western theme and enrollment is open to all children interested.

Bus service will be available free of charge each day and will serve Hastings Ranch, Coronet Homes and the Canyon as well as part of East Pasadena. Information about the bus schedule and enrollment may be obtained at the church office, CUster 5-1409.

In preparation for the coming school, about 20 members of the staff of 50, are attending a workshop sponsored by the Bible Institute of Los Angeles each day this week. Demonstrations of and instructions in procedure are being given in conjunction with materials and methods.

The worship is assisted by the Gospel Light Press, publishers of the curriculum which will be used at Bethany's Vacation Bible school.

REGISTER SATURDAY FOR 1ST BAPTIST'S VACATION SCHOOL

Registration of children planning to attend the Daily Vacation Bible School Monday, June 21, through Friday, July 2, will be in progress at 10 o'clock Saturday morning at the First Baptist church, according to the pastor, the Rev. Edward J. Kriz.

Children will receive recruiter hats as they register and will receive points for each child they recruit in turn to attend the Bible school with them. Another feature of the Bible school will be a contest in progress through the two weeks, the winner to receive a week's stay, free, at a summer Bible camp.

Classes will begin at 9 a.m., Monday, the 21st.

A picnic is scheduled for Saturday, July 3, to which the Bible school students will be guests, along with all members and friends of the First Baptist Church and Sunday school.

ATOMIC FORCE TEXT OF LESSON-SERMON

That man and the universe evolved from God must reflect His power and harmonious activity will be brought out at Christian Science services Sunday. The subject will be the question, "Is the Universe, Including Man, Evolved by Atomic Force?"

Luke's Gospel records that when Jesus entered a village, "there met him ten men that were lepers, which stood afar off: And they lifted up their voices, and said, Jesus, Master, have mercy on us. And when he saw them, he said unto them, Go shew yourselves unto the priests. And it came to pass, that, as they went, they were cleansed" (17:12-14).

Mary Baker Eddy says in "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures": "When the mechanism of the human mind gives place to the divine Mind, selfishness and sin, disease and death, will lose their foothold Mortal mind is the worst foe of the body, while divine Mind is its best friend" (p. 176).

The Golden Text from Psalms reads:

"God hath spoken once; twice have I heard this; that power belongeth unto God" (62:11).

BETHANY HOSTS PARTY TONIGHT FOR ALL GRADS

All the graduates of junior high, high school and college will be honored tonight at an informal party being sponsored by the Bethany Church Youth Council. Festivities will begin around 9:30 p.m. in Fellowship hall and will continue "as long as the refreshments last," according to the sponsors.

The party has been arranged to follow the graduation exercises tonight in the Rose Bowl in Pasadena. Included on the program will be movies, games and skits.

Commenting on the party plans, Dr. Robert N. Schaper, pastor, said: "I am glad to see the Youth Council provide wholesome fun for our young people on graduation night rather than turning them loose on dangerous highways or to a kind of 'post-graduation fling' which might see even our finest youth doing things on the spur of the moment which any other time they would consider impossibilities."

William L. Daley, newspaper publisher; opposing ban on beer and liquor advertising: "It is unlikely that a publication will carry advertising which may be offensive to the rank and file of subscribers."

MYSTERIOUS ENDING

Walter Tippy was amazed at the way the mystery he has been reading turned out, until he discovered that he had read up to page 123 in one book and finished the other 200 in another.—The Columbia (S.C.) St.

We liked the story of the mean, old, lazy farmer down in Mississippi who never got around to naming his twin bovs. So they grew up yith one being known as "Hey" and the other as "You Too."—The Emmeetsburg (Iowa) Reporter.

Dr. Kieffer D. Davis, medical director for an oil firm: "When a person dislikes his job, or finds it monotonous, he'll find reasons to stay away even if he has to feign illness."

Lay Leader to Occupy Pulpit At Redeemer

Family Night Event Postponed to June 24

Myron Smith, Charge lay leader, will occupy the pulpit Sunday at Church of Our Redeemer, Methodist, in the absence of the Rev. Raynor Smith, minister, who will be in Redlands attending sessions of the Southern California-Arizona annual conference of the Methodist church. In keeping with the theme of Father's Day, Mr. Smith will speak about the father of Methodism and has entitled his talk, "The Lord's Horseman."

The minister has announced a change in the date of the All-Church Family Night scheduled for tonight, which has been postponed to June 24. The usual covered-dish supper will be served at 6:30 p.m. on the 24th to members and friends of the church and their families. The program for the evening will be a color-sound movie.

THE FOREST RANGER

"He guards our earth

He's a man of the woods at heart, or he wouldn't have picked such a lonely job. You can't expect to see many people or movies or ball games when you choose the life of a Forest Ranger. You have your radio, your books, and in the summer there'll be a few vacationers to say hello to. But mostly you go it alone—just you and your family in a small house in the middle of a great tract of land which the American people have placed in your care.

They hand you a piece of their national wealth—so many million trees, so many thousand square miles of soil and grass, so many rivers and lakes and mountains. And they tell you: "Look after it. Don't let it die or burn or wear out. Be the doctor and lawyer and nursemaid and fireman and engineer and business manager for this piece of the living American earth."

And then you're on your own.

You get up early in the morning and go out on your rounds. Some days you look for tree diseases; some days you count animals. Often you go to the little streams that are the birthplace of America's rivers, and you take samples of their water to be tested for purity. You look for places where the soil may be wearing thin. You study the roads, the trails, the power lines. And always you keep a sharp eye for those rising wisps of smoke that can turn the woods into a terrible red torch of destruction.

The lumbermen come here on business, and it's your job to mark the trees that are ready for cutting—not too many, not too few. The ranchmen graze their herds here, and it's up to you to decide how many cattle the land will support. For this land belongs to all your countrymen, not only the living ones but those still to be born, and it must be used but not used up, enjoyed but not destroyed. It's your job to protect it from disease, from fire, from weather—and from ourselves.

We in America like our men of progress and our men of change. But we also honor the conservers—those men who preserve without change the things that are worth saving. Some are men of law, and some are men of faith, and a few are men of the woods at heart, living in lonely cabins, guarding our irreplaceable earth."

(John Hancock Mutual Life Ins. Co., Boston, Mass.)

CAROL BYRON, above, 730 Orange Drive, Sierra Madre, was recently selected as "Miss Newport" to take part June 18-20 in the Miss California pageant at Santa Cruz. Miss Byron bowed out earlier this year as a Wisteria Festival princess.

Float Survey Tally Goes to Coord. Board for Study

One of the first problems the new executive board of the Community Coordinating Council will tussle with when it meets June 25 will be interpretation of results in the council's recent Float survey.

W. M. Hawkins Jr., Float Survey committee chairman, reported at the council's installation dinner last week that of 2400 questionnaires sent to that many households here, only 149 replies were returned. Of these, he said, 78 firm "noes" outnumbered 66 "yesses" and 5 "maybes" but the let's-do-it comments were backed up with $290 in cash and pledges, and assurances of volunteer brain and muscle work.

Next week the board will study the results from all angles. Chairman Hawkins proffers the suggestion that the decision could be reached more simply and happily if folks would still take up their pens, dash off their comments and mail them to Mrs. Alyce Herrold, 479 N. Auburn.

One hope of the Coordinating Council is that, if public opinion warrants it, a Float association might be formed early in the year to circumvent the last minute fund-raising hassle. It also has been brought out that highly satisfactory floats, can be built for as little as $500 with volunteer design, construction, etc., cutting costs.

Lions Present Eye-Testing Equipment to City School

The Sierra Madre Lions Club was lauded for its "foresight" in presenting eye-testing equipment last week to the City school in continuation of the service club's sight-saving program.

The occasion was formal presentation of a Telebinocular and Visual acuity chart to Supt. of Schools Charles A. Skutt who, with Mrs. Hortense Wells, school nurse, was among the guests of honor at last week's dinner-meeting. The eye-testing equipment, like that used in all Pasadena schools, was purchased with proceeds of the Lions' White Cane Day appeal here last fall.

Demonstrates Machine

Praise of the Lions Club for its foresight and the worthiness of the sight-saving project came from Gaspar Cisneros Barnette of the Occidental college faculty, who also was a guest. Barnette teaches tachistoscopic techniques, including the study of vision in relation to reading and general school work. He demonstrated the use of the instrument which was displayed at the dinner in the Woman's clubhouse.

Oscar Willumson, chairman of the club's aid to the blind and sight conservation program, said that the gift was one from the club and the people of Sierra Madre who responded to the White Can Day appeal.

Fills Need

Both Supt. Skutt and Mrs. Wells stated that receipt of the eye-testing equipment represents fulfillment of a long-time need.

As part of the school program, the eyes of City school children will be tested periodically and reports made to parents on sight defects to encourage early correction. The basis of the Lions' Aid to the Blind program is that early detection of visual irregularities and defects can, in most cases, prevent blindness.

S.M. STUDENTS GRADUATED FROM PASADENA ACADEMY

Commencement exercises for Pasadena Academy were held on June 10, in Memorial Auditorium at Pasadena Nazarene College. Graduating, from Sierra Madre, were: Judith Anderson, 354 N. Lima, and Raymond Earl Cheroske, 747 East Grandview. Both are planning to continue on a Pasadena College.

Trapped Boys Rescued from Cliff Friday

By HANK SHIPPEY

Two boys nearly lost their lives on the fire-scorched and blackened cliffs of Santa Anita Canyon late Friday when they became trapped nearly a thousand feet above the canyon floor.

Joe Overbeck, 18, 2436 South 13th St., Springfield, Ill., and Richard Klagues, 17, 1816 Elenado St., Arcadia, attracted an Arcadia police department patrol car with their calls for help from the towering mountainside.

Arcadia patrolman Bill White immediately placed radio calls for assistance which brought out the Arcadia fire department, the Sierra Madre police department, and the Sierra Madre search and rescue squad, a volunteer group which has aided in many mountain rescues in the past.

From 2:30 in the afternoon until nearly dark, the two boys held their precarious positions, unable to move, due to the loose, gravely condition of the burned - over mountainside, making every step dangerous and sending dirt and boulders down the cliff.

Just before dark, the combined efforts of all the rescue parties brought the two boys safely down to the canyon bottom.

Joe Overbeck is visiting here with his parents. This was his first experience with Southern California mountains . . . and one which he is not likely to forget for a long time. He and his parents are staying at the home of his mountain climbing partner for an extended vacation period.

Sierra Madre mountaineer, Fred La Lone, headed the rescue squad.

Sermonette

By REV. EDWARD J. KRIZ
Pastor, First Baptist Church

"Fear thou not; for I am with thee. Be not dismayed, for I am thy God. I will strengthen thee; yea, I will help thee; yea, I will uphold thee with the right hand of my righteousness." Isaiah 41:10.

Although this was a promise to Israel of God's protection and support through the troublous period that was approaching them, we, too, as believers in the resurrected Christ, can claim these blessed promises. This then, is our need in these days of struggle, distress and conflict. It is not the time for discouragement, but the time for encouragement.

Encouragement and strength, comfort and peace, will always come when we look away from ourselves and our circumstances and look up in faith to Him, the "One who bore our sins in His own body on the tree," paid the penalty which was death, arose and is even now at the right hand of the Father.

If you can not claim this promise, won't you now take Christ as your personal Saviour? Even through days that are dark and evil, He will never leave thee nor forsake thee, neither will He fail thee.

Compliments are sometimes thinly-veiled apple-polishing.

Class of 90 Sixth Graders Receives Promotion Papers In City School Ceremonies

Most Will Attend Marshall Next Fall; Picnic Today Honors Young "Graduates"

It was their final assembly in the Sierra Madre Elementary school yesterday afternoon for 90 sixth graders who gathered on the auditorium stage to receive their promotion certificates from Supt. of Schools Charles A. Skutt as their families, friends and fifth grade schoolmates looked on.

A feature of the promotion day ceremony was the singing of a song by the fifth grade pupils in honor of the three classes being promoted. Approximately 70 of the boys and girls who have been promoted from sixth grade will be attending Marshall Junior High school in Pasadena next fall. The others, most of whom have brothers and sisters there, will be attending Wilson Junior high school.

Essay Contest Awards

Another high point of the program was the presentation of awards in the American Legion auxiliary's annual essay contest. Present to receive their prizes were Linda Reavis and Janet Dickson, first and third place winners. Claude Schutz, awarded second prize, has moved away. Honorable mentions went to Jean Poyntz, Pat Simpson and Sally Frye.

Appearing on the program in vocal or instrumental solos were Valerie Anderson, Virginia Davis, Susan Dowty, Linda Rosales, Michael Earls and Stuart Nagle, all promoted sixth graders.

Luncheon, Picnic Parties

Prior to the promotion ceremony, the pupils and their parents were feted at a luncheon in the school cafeteria. This afternoon the three "graduating" classes were to gather in Santa Anita (County) Park for swimming, games and a picnic supper arranged by their room mothers under the chairmanship of Mrs. Richard B. Caswell.

Experts List Trees Suitable For Home Planting in Area

Los Angeles landscape experts and nurserymen have compiled a list of colorful shade trees, both deciduous and evergreen, suitable for planting around Southland homes. Each has the extra value of producing colorful flowers.

EVERGREEN TREES

Victorian Box: Glossy broad, evergreen foliage in a large, round head that gives dense shade. Moderately rapid grower, reaches 25-30 feet. Has clusters of creamy white, fragrant blooms in early spring. Cannot take heavy frosts.

Southern Magnolia (Magnolia grandiflora): Erect, spreading broad leaf tree of dense texture. Slow grower, 30-40 feet tall, heavy, dark green leaves, with large wax-like scented flowers during spring and early summer. Hardy, gnows anywhere, but likes fairly rich soil and plenty of moisture.

Evergreen Pears (Pyrus Kawakami): Open, irregularly shaped head, very easy to train to varied forms, gives dappled shade. Moderately fast growth, 20-30 feet tall. White blossoms during spring.

Scarlet Eucalyptus (Eucalyptus ficifolia): :Grows 30-40 feet tall, with a spread of 20-30 feet, rather large leaves. Has showy flowers in white to salmon, orange and red in summer and fall. Prefers coastal climate with higher humidity and freedom from frost. Growth moderately slow.

DECIDUOUS TREES

Jacaranda (Jacaranda ovalifolia): Nearly evergreen, the tree loses leaves briefly during spring. Moderately fast growth to 30-40 feet, with 25-foot spread. Fine, feathery foliage, with lavender-blue flowers in early summer. Unsuitable in areas of heavy frost.

Silk Tree (Albizzia Julibrissin): Grows rapidly to 30-40-foot height, with wide spread of ferny-leafed branches. Pink, fluffy flowers like pincushions in late summer and fall. Hardy, suitable in any Southland area.

Purple Plum (Prunus Pissardii): An upright tree with dark red foliage, about 20 feet tall. Grows rapidly, is hardy, gives fairly heavy shade. White blossome in early spring.

Yellow Locust (Tipuana tipu): An upright, graceful tree with lacy feliage, it grows rapidly to 35-40 feet. Hardy, gievs quantities of yellow flowers in early summer.

Chinese Flame Tree (Koelreuteria bipinata): A semi-deciduous tree (similar to Jacaranda), it has an irregular, picturesque head. The spreading, open foilage produces dappled shade, with colorful red seeds. Moderate growing speed to 30 feet. Hardy to frost.

Red Chestnut (Aesculus carnea): Grows moderately to 25-30 feet, with a rounded head and rather heavy shade. Large leaves make a colorful setting for ping to red flowers in late spring. Is hardy, but likes moist soil.

Don't forget the big game tomorrow night!

The Sierra Madre softball team is playing the Alchemists at 8:30 on diamond 3 at Brookside Park.

The team now has a 1-1 record. They lost their last game to Fair Oaks Furniture 8-0.

So come on folks, we want to set a record in attendance over at Brookside. Forget about the dishes, you can do them early in the morning. After all—this is your home team; you can support it once in awhile, anyway.

THISA AND THATA . . .

Dick Keller, advertising manager of the NEWS, and ex semi-pro ball player, might play with the Sierra Madre softball team. He plays second or shortstop.

Buddy Webster, who is planning to go to Europe late in July, is practicing bike riding. He said that that's all he's going to be doing over there, so he might as well get in shape. He rode up to Chantry Flats and back in an amazing time of 1 hour and 10 minutes. Last we heard he was going to pedal to the beach. Have fun! . . .

Who's going to run the Canyon pool this year? . . .

If the Sierra Madre softball team wins the "A" Championship, each player receives a gold plated trophy about 8 to 10 inches high. . . .

For you guys who like to fish, Crowley Lake in the High Sierras is called the "home of the big trout." For information on how to get there and reservations, call Mi-5211 . . .

We still think the Los Angeles Angels will end up in the first division. . . .

By the way, we saw a sign that said "Los Angeles Angles."

ST. RITA'S GIRLS CHOIR SINGS AT GUILD LUNCHEON

The closing luncheon-meeting of the season of St. Rita's Guild was attended by approximately 100 members and guests who participated in the installation of new officers, then heard a program presented by the Girls' choir directed by Sister Marie Celine.

The 36-voice choir, composed of sixth, seventh and eighth grade pupils of St. Rita's school, sang "Trees," "Waltz of the Flowers," "Romany Life" and 'Ave Marie" among other selections. At the conclusion of the concert Patricia Pawlacyk, spokesman for the group, stepped forward to express appreciation to the Guild members and mothers for all they had done for the school during the year just closed.

Also a part of the program was presentation of a resume of the year's activities of the Guild by the historian, Mrs. Harry MacDonaugh.

MRS. BYRON M. KNOBLAUCH NEW CLUB PRESIDENT

Mrs. Byron M. Knoblauch, 1950 Vista, has been chosen as the new president for the Friday Morning Club Juniors of Los Angeles.

At the recently held installation luncheon Mrs. Knoblauch presented her new board to the club members.

The Answers to Everyday Insurance Problems • By HARRY A. LANGE

QUESTION: When we talk about getting some additional insurance it seems to me the insurance people always say we can get it by "endorsement." I would appreciate your telling me just what that means.

ANSWER: The term "endorsement" used in connection with insurance simply means a form which can be attached to an insurance policy to change the policy terms. Additional insurance coverage is often added to an existing policy by endorsement.

Valley Camera Club Elects R. C. Lewis

R. C. Lewis, prsident of the Bank of Sierra Madre, now has other presidential duties to perform. At a dinner meeting earlier this month he was elected to that office by the Sunkist Camera Club of San Gabriel Valley.

The organization of professional men and others with a consuming interest in amateur photography have reduced parliamentary business to a minimum by having only one officer. Another local man, Rudolph Hartman, is a past president of the one-officer camera club which was organized in 1929.

At the recent dinner meeting travel pictures taken in Guatemala by a Dr. Hovenden of Monrovia were shown. The doctor was among the last to travel in that country before the "unpleasantness."

Arcadia VFW Invites Local Children to Free Magic Show Sat.

Free tickets available — no box tops required!

As a neighborly gesture to Sierra Madre, Arcadia VFW Post No. 2070, has given Maggie Ascher at the Chamber of Commerce office, 50 FREE tickets to the VFW's Fun and Magic show to be presented at 2 p.m., Saturday, in the Arcadia High school gym.

These and more tickets, if necessary, are available for the asking to Sierra Madre boys and girls. Parents who accompany children also will be admitted free.

Call or stop in and see Mrs. Ascher, Chamber of Commerce office, 38 W. Sierra Madre Blvd., telephone, CUster 5-6676.

HENRY RINTELMAN CONDITION VERY CRITICAL

Henry Rintelman, 158 West Highland, age 84, who has been a patient in Los Angeles General hospital since suffering a stroke early in May, is reported to have suffered another stroke and heart attack yesterday and was not expected to live.

His daughter, Mrs. Irene Beeson of Pasadena, notified Sierra Madre friends of her father's condition.

Anti-Rabies Shots Given 200 Pets Here

Two hundred canine and feline residents of Sierra Madre had received injections of anti-rabies serum during the city's first voluntary, mass innoculation program here which was concluded Monday night on the City school playground.

The project, offering anti-rabies vaccinations for dogs and cats at a reduced fee of $1 each, was launched and carried thru by the Sierra Madre Parent-Teacher association, assisted by the San Gabriel Valley Veterinarian Society, five of whose members administered the shots, the Valley Humane Society, local police and other volunteers. The three-day program, which many hope will be repeated annually, had the sanction of the City Council.

Surprise at Turnout

Dr. Norman L. McBride, Pasadena veterinary, expressed surprise at the turnout, even on the first night, June 14, when 67 owners lined up with their pets. Forty-six innoculations were given on the following Friday night, and Monday night set the record with 85 innoculations.

For the convenience of dog owners, Chief of Police Gordon G. McMillan set up shop on the school grounds and members of the force sold dog licenses for the year beginning July 1.

Mrs. Arthur C. Bohart, who was president of the PTA when the project was started, reports that the operation proceeded smoothly all three nights. As far as she knows, she said, there was only one dog fracas, short-lived and not serious.

Assistants Listed

Dr. H. C. Field of the Arcadia Small Animal Hospital was among the veterinaries administering shots.

Others assisting in various capacities were Supt. of Schools Charles A. Skutt who arranged for school custodians to set up tables, chairs, money boxes and lights each of the three nights, and Boy Scout troops with Scoutmaster Wm. Gallaway, William Spargur and James Johnson, who tagged the animals. Individuals assisting included Mrs. Tom Willis, Mrs. Charles H. James, Mr. McWade, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Christensen, Mrs. Gifford Eastwood, new president of the PTA, Mrs. Frazer Dougherty, Lynn Moffet, Annie Thayer, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Lawyer, Mrs. Betty Masters and Mrs. L. A. Moffet.

land-use pattern will set the goal for the City's growth and can be "lived with" during the growing period. "It will establish pretty well the size of the business area in relation to anticipated growth and set other standards to be administered in the use of the land," he commented.

Other speakers on the program at which Dr. Daniel D'Arcy presided, were Walter H. Goodwin, retiring council president; W. M. Hawkins Jr., Float Survey committee chairman; and John Davis and Randy Richards of the Tournament of Roses Association.

A gold-framed, color photo of Sierra Madre's 1954 Rose Parade float was presented and color movies of this year's parade were shown.

Planners to Consider County Acquisition of Canyon Properties

A special meeting of the City Planning Commission was to be called for a date prior to next Thursday's regular meeting to make recommendation on the Los Angeles County Flood Control District's acquisitions of rights of way for flood control installations in Bailey, Auburn and Carter canyons.

Councilman Roberts explained Tuesday that approval of the City and the Planning Commission is required before the District may institute condemnation proceedings.

Approval by the City and withholding of building permits in the areas have been requested by the District.

Death Takes Brother Of City Administrator

Funeral services were held Monday in an El Monte mortuary chapel for Floyd Bevington of La Canada, younger brother of Lawrence Bevington, Sierra Madre city administrator.

Interment was in Rose Hill cemetery.

Young Bevington died Saturday after a lengthy illness. He had been an employee of the State Division of Highways.

M. D. Discusses German Type Of Measles

ROY O. GILBERT, M.D.
Los Angeles County Health Officer

Seasonal in occurrence, the number of cases of German measles is greatest from late winter to the end of spring and, although probably existing for centuries, received little attention from doctors or patients prior to 1941. At that time, medical scientists discovered that the disorder had serious effects on unborn infants when expectant mothers contracted the disease during the first three months of pregnancy.

One attack of the disease usually, but not always, confers immunity.

Name Misleading

The name of the disease is misleading. It is in no way related to true measles and is generally not as serious as measles nor is it as contagious. An attack of one disease gives no immunity against the other.

Essentially a disease of childhood, the illness caused by German measles is most always mild. This is also true in the case of adults. One study revealed that out of 66 adults who had the disease, only two felt sick enough to go to bed. After the age of 40, occurrence of the disease is rare.

Symptoms usually appear in from 10 to 20 days after the exposure of persons susceptible to the infection. A slight sore throat, mild headache, and loss of appetite is followed within 12 to 36 hours by a blotchy rash which undoubtedly is the most prominent symptom in German measles. It makes a sudden appearance on the face, spreads to the rest of the body and usually fades within three days. The rash, which sometimes appears without any warning whatsoever, looks something like the one that occurs in measles but more closely resembles that of scarlet fever.

During the period when the rash is evident, a slight fever may be present and the glands behind the ears swollen and tender. In rare instances complications such as arthritis and neuritis occur but, when they do, are seen more often in adults than in children.

The disease is transmitted by the nose and throat discharges of infected persons and may also be spread by means of articles recently soiled. The period of contagion extends from three to four days before the skin eruption appears and lasts until it fades. The sick person should avoid contact with others during this period and take precautions to prevent the spread of infection.

"... And 25 Extension Phones, Please"

Now, you may not need 25 extensions in your house or apartment, but wouldn't it be handy to have an extra phone in your bedroom . . . or kitchen . . . or basement? An extension phone saves so much time and bother. Saves stumbling over furniture and barking shins when hurrying down long halls or up steep stairs to get to the phone before it stops ringing. An extension phone is really a BIG convenience. Why not order one today? The cost is so little—only $1.00 a month for each residence extension and $1.25 for each business extension. Just call our business office and the young lady there will take care of everything.
